

As the former Commissioner for the California Public Utilities Commission who started the initial proceeding exactly 54 months ago, I believe that it is absolutely critical to the development of competition in this nation that this case be affirmatively decided by the FCC now. I believe SBC has certifiably complied with every procedural dictate from the state of California and FCC, it is time to open the markets.